TEMPORARY SUBSCRIBER STATUS

Under the Society's Rule 13.2 the Executive Director may approve as Temporary Subscribers persons who are qualified for membership but who are either resident overseas or newly arrived in New Zealand, and unable to obtain membership nomination from two members. Temporary Subscriber status may continue for a maximum of 12 months from the date of arrival in New Zealand.

Temporary Subscribers receive the same information and benefits from the Society as other members except that they are not eligible to vote at the Annual General Meeting, nor at any other properly constituted meeting of a Society group. Temporary Subscribers who take up residence in New Zealand are required to apply for Full Membership if they wish to continue to belong to the Society.

RELEVANT RULE EXTRACTS

5.1

To qualify for election as a Full member an applicant must have satisfied the Executive that he or she possesses one of the following qualifications:

- (a) a Doctorate in the field of psychology; or
- (b) an Honours or Masters degree in the field of psychology, or
- (c) an Honours, Masters, or other approved postgraduate qualification in which at least two courses (equivalent in total credit weight to one half of a full academic year of study) on psychological topics have been passed at postgraduate level, and that either
  - (i) a thesis on a psychological topic has been accepted, or
  - (ii) at least one year of relevant supervised experience or training acceptable to the Executive has been completed.
- (d) such equivalent qualifications, skills or knowledge in psychology as may be approved by the Executive after consultation with the Membership and Status Committee.

5.2

Qualifications gained at overseas institutions will be accepted if they are deemed by the Executive Director in consultation with the Membership and Status Committee as equivalent to the Society's published membership criteria. Any person holding overseas qualifications recognised as sufficient for registration as a psychologist by the New Zealand Psychologists Board will be deemed to have qualifications meeting the requirements of this rule 5.2.
