NZSIGN is delighted to host a webinar with distinguished Emeritus Professor Jerome Sattler regarding his new book.

This Webinar will provide an overview of Professor Jerome Sattler's latest book published in 2022—Foundations of Behavioral, Social, and Clinical Assessment of Children, Seventh Edition. Each participant will receive a copy of the book (as part of the registration fee). The Seventh Edition contains new material on theoretical perspectives useful for assessment, trauma and trauma-informed care, bullying and cyberbullying, child maltreatment, disruptive disorders, anxiety and mood disorders, substance-related disorders, attention deficit/hyperactivity disorder, autism spectrum disorder, adaptive behaviour, functional behavioural assessment, and executive functions. In addition, the Seventh Edition contains reviews of several standardised measures for assessing behavioural, social, and emotional functioning of children and for assessing parenting and family functioning.

Participants will be encouraged to ask questions. Please send questions to Professor Sattler at least one week before the Webinar is held (jsattler@sdsu.edu).

Programme Objectives

- Discuss recent developments in the field of assessment of children
- Recognise signs of trauma, bullying, and child maltreatment.
