Are you looking for an exciting challenge and a change of lifestyle? Your job search ends here!

We seek a psychologist interested in building DBT expertise to join our friendly and supportive team within an adherent DBT residential programme for adults with emotional dysregulation.

Te Whare Mahana is an independent charitable trust that provides a range of community based mental health services as well as NZ's only residential Dialectical Behaviour Therapy.

Qualification required: Registered Psychologists with training and experience in CBT and DBT. Although DBT training and experience is strongly preferred, we will invest in DBT training for an enthusiastic applicant. Leadership development opportunities are available. Salary offered in relation to the professional experience.

Benefits include: 4 weeks paid vacation, paid professional/registration fees, annual training budget, some flexibility in work schedule. 0.8 FTE.
