

Clinical Psychologist

Join Re-centre

At Re-centre, we provide comprehensive assessment and diagnostic services, and broad medical and psychological treatment options to New Zealanders and visitors. Re-centre offers courses, workshops and 1:1 personal therapies to clients and their carers in a collaborative manner. Re-centre does not provide acute care.

We are a part of the Evolution Healthcare Group, which is a leading provider of choice for innovative and superior private healthcare across New Zealand and Australia. We believe the work we do, the values we uphold, and the ambitions of our team enable our staff to be their best.

Re-centre is looking to recruit a full-time clinical psychologist to provide psychological interventions at our private mental health clinic in Parnell.

- Collaborative multi-disciplinary team
- Great working environment
- Flexible and supportive working culture

About the role

As one of our clinical psychologists, you will provide assessments and interventions to a range of people to use the service. You may use ACT, CBT, EMDR or other talking therapies. You may specialise in working with children, adolescents or adults or in addiction disorders. You may join our existing ACC contracts to provide a range of interventions. Re-centre has corporate, government and community contracts so work is reliable.

This is a permanent, full-time position for 80 hours per fortnight and is located at Re-centre in Parnell, Auckland.

About you

As a clinical psychologist, you may wish to work days or evenings with us. At Re-centre, you get the best of both worlds: the ability to work autonomously, and the opportunity to work in a close integrated supportive team.

- Experience in community mental health (public or private) for at least two years
- Excellent assessment skills
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills and telephone manner

Join Evolution

When you join us at Re-centre, you will be given the support you need to succeed. We provide a safe, friendly, inclusive and diverse work environment.

Re-centre is a part of the wider team of Evolution Healthcare. With a team of 1300 and growing, Evolution Healthcare is a leading provider of choice for innovative and superior private healthcare across New Zealand and Australia. We believe the work we do, the values we uphold, and the ambitions of our team enable our staff to be their best.

Belonging to Evolution Healthcare means you are supported by an organisation that invests in facilities, technologies and innovative models to continuously move towards a better future for all the people in our care.

Leading through our values
