

Clinical Psychologist - Community Mental Health and Addictions Services, Kaitaia (1.0 FTE, permanent)

Achieving the best health outcomes for Northland communities starts with expecting the best from ourselves. We ensure every member of our team has the opportunity to develop, grow and stay inspired. Here, you can make an impact on your community and on your own professional development – all whilst enjoying a flexible and healthy work-life balance.

Te Whatu Ora Te Tai Tokerau is committed to Te Tiriti o Waitangi and holds stewardship for equitable health outcomes for Māori as Tāngata Whenua as the highest priority.

About You

Are you looking for an exciting opportunity to join a passionate team who places great value on putting people first, embedding Te Ao Māori in everyday practice and have the standard of clinical practice and expertise necessary to effectively provide for tāngata whaiora and whānau needs within the Community Mental Health and Addictions Services here in Northland?

We are looking for an exceptional Clinical Psychologist who has experience in mental health and addiction, as well as experience or understanding of our Te Tai Tokerau population. Your high standard of clinical practice and expertise and understanding of psychosocial and cultural issues will support the wellbeing of tāngata whaiora within the context of their whānau through the provision of psychological assessment, intervention and consultation/supervision.

About the Role

This is a full time (40 hours per week) role based in Kaitaia. The Community Mental Health and Addictions Service is based in the Kaitaia Hospital serving residents of Kaitaia and surrounding areas. A new six bed sub-acute unit is currently being built within the hospital grounds and will complement services already established within the hospital.

A career with Te Whatu Ora will see you action meaningful change in the region we love, and in your professional development – all whilst enjoying everything the stunning North has to offer. You really can enjoy the best of both.
