Health New Zealand - Te Whatu Ora is firmly grounded in the principles of Te Tiriti o Waitangi and is committed to building a health system that serves all New Zealanders.

Te whiwhinga mahi - The opportunity

We are seeking motivated and committed psychologists who are interested in working in our community-based clinical teams. Our mental health services offer a range of comprehensive mental health assessments and interventions to people residing in the southern regions of Auckland city (Counties Manukau district). We value the contribution psychologists make to our teams and our communities we serve. As part of the team, you will have the opportunity to practice advanced therapies and contribute to treatment planning and service development.

Please note: Counties Manukau also offers specialist district-wide services that focus on high-needs populations. For more details about these roles, please click here.

Below are the positions we have available across our community services.

Child and Adolescent Mental Health Services (CAMHS)

Our child and adolescent services work with children and youth between the ages of 4 and 18 years. You will provide specialist assessments, therapy and clinical interventions, and integrative treatment plans for the children and youth living in South Auckland. Our CAMHS services offer you an opportunity to work with a vibrant and experienced clinical team, and an opportunity to provide care to a clinically and culturally diverse and appreciative community.

Adult Community Mental Health (CMHC)

Our CMHC teams provide specialised mental health care and support for adults aged 16 - 65 who are experiencing moderate to severe mental health conditions. Focused on community-based care, these teams help individuals manage their mental health and live their lives in an empowering and meaningful way. Psychologists in this role will provide a range of individual and group psychological therapies and actively support the delivery of several evidence-based modalities such as DBT and CAT.

Intensive Community Team (ICT)

The Intensive Community team is a specialist mental health service that provides support for individuals with complex mental health conditions. You will work in an outreach focused multidisciplinary team, providing specialist interventions and consultations to clients and their support systems.
