Now Open
Closes Noon, 08 July 2025

The New Zealand Ministry of Education is seeking experienced psychometricians to help deliver a new assessment approach across schooling Years 3-10, aligned to both The New Zealand Curriculum and Te Marautanga o Aotearoa.

We are looking for individuals or organisations with:

- Proven experience in assessment for school-aged learners
- Expertise in test development, validation, and statistical analysis (IRT, CTT)
- Familiarity with the New Zealand education system and cultural responsiveness
- Availability from August 2025 to July 2026 (with possible extensions).

This is a rare opportunity to contribute to a whole-of-pathway assessment model that supports equity, strengthens learning, and informs decision-making across Aotearoa's education system.
