

- Take the next step in your Clinical Psychology career in beautiful New Zealand
- Advance your career working in a multi-disciplinary team across services
- Full-time, part-time, fixed term and permanent positions available for Clinical Psychologists across New Zealand

About you

Exciting opportunities are available for qualified Clinical Psychologists who want to relocate to New Zealand.

In New Zealand, Clinical Psychologists provide psychological assessment, diagnosis, formulation and therapy across a wide range of mental health and wellbeing services in both urban and rural communities. You'll be part of a collaborative, multidisciplinary environment with a strong emphasis on cultural competence, evidence-based practice, and professional development.

Roles are available across all age groups and clinical settings, including:

- Adult Mental Health
- Child and Adolescent Mental Health (CAMHS)
- Older Adult Services
- Perinatal and Maternal Mental Health
- Early Psychosis Intervention
- Forensic Mental Health
- Intellectual Disabilities
- Youth Offending and Community Services
- Physical Health and Rehabilitation

Positions are available across New Zealand with immediate start dates, or you can speak with our Recruitment team about your plans to move to New Zealand.

To work as a Clinical Psychologist in New Zealand, you must be registered with the New Zealand Psychologists Board under the clinical scope of practice and hold a current Annual Practising Certificate. Overseas-trained applicants are assessed individually on their qualifications, competence, and fitness to practice.

Call New Zealand home

Once offered a position, our Health Immigration team can provide free support to you and your family with immigrating to New Zealand. This workforce is on the New Zealand green list, so you have the opportunity for permanent residency in New Zealand.

One of the best things about living and working in New Zealand is the opportunity to experience nature, outdoor adventure, and vibrant cities, all so close to where you live and work. You're never far away from your next adventure in New Zealand with access to hiking, skiing, mountain biking, and water sports, as well as fine dining and diving into traditional experiences to learn more about Māori culture all across the country.

Salary and benefits

With 4 weeks of annual leave and 12 paid public holidays, you have time explore our beautiful country and raise a family in our diverse communities. Along with your base salary you will have ongoing professional development and will work alongside a multi-disciplinary and supportive team.

- Annual salaries range GBP £38K - £66K (NZ $85K - NZ $150K) plus allowances.

Additional allowances are paid on top of base salary and vary due to location and service.

Working for Health New Zealand

Health New Zealand | Te Whatu Ora is 'the weaving of wellness'. We're dedicated to ensuring excellent healthcare for the people of New Zealand. Our people are at the heart of everything we do. Health New Zealand are committed to being good employers and honouring our equal employment opportunity obligations. We embrace diversity and welcome applications from all people, including all gender identities, ages, ethnicities, sexual orientations, and disability. A workforce that is diverse and inclusive means that we are better positioned to understand and service our community. We are pro-equity health organisation, with a particular focus on Māori, Pacific Peoples, and the Disability Community.

Health New Zealand is firmly grounded in the principles of Te Tiriti o Waitangi and is dedicated to serving all New Zealanders. Through integration and collaboration, we're building a health system underpinned by partnership, equity, sustainability, whānau (family)-centred care, and excellence.

Our commitment to our communities

The New Zealand Health Charter guides how we relate to each other to serve our whānau (family) and communities, to continually improve health outcomes and contribute to wellness for all. We care for the people who care for the people; we recognise, support and value our people and the work we all do and work together to design and deliver healthcare services.

How to apply

Please click "apply now" to move forward with immediate consideration - all applications must be submitted through our online careers portal. We may reach out to you earlier if we have questions. If you have questions, please email our Recruiter internationalrecruitmentcentre@tewhatauora.govt.nz