

START THE 2026 NEW YEAR STRONGLY IMPROVE YOUR SKILLS WHEN WORKING ON RELATIONSHIP ISSUES WITH INDIVIDUALS AND/OR COUPLES (AND YOUR OWN)

Whether you work with couples or individuals, you probably spend a lot of clinical time talking about relationships. It can be a frustrating process working with people who are stuck or even self-defeating in their relationships.

So, whatever your level of interest or expertise in relationship therapy, our 2026 February programme will have something to help you grow your expertise and confidence. (Click on the titles below for more details and prices.)

The Core Skills & Theory of the Developmental Model.

This five-day programme is the complete foundation training in the Bader-Pearson Developmental Model.

12 & 13 February 2026 in Auckland introduces the core theory (Attachment, Neurobiology, Differentiation & Developmental Stages) and tools.

30 March 2026 online for case discussion, practical review, and questions.

11 & 12 May in Auckland develops more skills, and applications of the model to some of the complex cases that we see.

Check out our early bird special Cost: $1795 (incl GST) AND $1650 EARLY BIRD SPECIAL (until 15 December 2025). For more details or to book click HERE

This training is the gateway to fully qualifying as a Developmental Model therapist through our Internship Programme.

Supervision and Consultation - Take your practice to the next level! Have expert input into your cases from Paula and Nic. Plus learn from listening and discussing cases with colleagues in our Group Supervision option.

We look forward to seeing you in February 2026.
