

- Based on the beautiful Whatua Kaimarie Marae in Point Chevalier with easy access to the Northwestern motorway and free on-street parking
- Permanent, full-time role (can be flexible depending on the candidate)
- Be part of our team where we share a passion in supporting our Māori tangata whai-i-te-ora clients on their recovery journey

Health New Zealand - Te Whatu Ora is firmly grounded in the principles of Te Tiriti o Waitangi and is committed to building a health system that serves all New Zealanders.

About the role

We are seeking a full-time, permanent Psychologist to join our team. Our team comprises of both Māori and non-Māori staff, clinicians and cultural/community support workers who share a passion for supporting Māori tangata whai-i-te-ora on their recovery pathway. Manawanui's commitment to our clients ensures healing in a holistic manner considering whanau, cultural, spiritual, physical and mental dimensions to achieve the best possible standards of cultural-clinical care.

We are looking for a dynamic and motivated clinician to share the clinical leadership. Responsibilities include managing a caseload, supporting the clinical leadership team, ensuring appropriate review of service user care, suitable workload allocation and clinical support and guidance to clinicians. Supporting our service to meet key performance objectives is an important part of the role.

About the Team/Service/Location

Manawanui Oranga Hinengaro is Health New Zealand's Māori Mental Health Services operating within the Auckland metropolitan area. Our Mental Health Service for Māori aims to provide a quality mental health service to adult Māori tangata whai i te ora and their whanau. We are based in Point Chevalier in Auckland.

About you

As a Psychologist, you must meet the below minimum requirements:

- Minimum of post graduate degree in Psychology (or its equivalent)
- Registration with the NZ Psychology Board as a Registered Psychologist with a Clinical Scope of Practice
- Current Practising Certificate
- A commitment to achieving equitable outcomes for Māori
- Minimum of post graduate degree in Psychology (or its recognised equivalent)

For more information, find the position description here.

Working at Health New Zealand

Health New Zealand - Te Whatu Ora is dedicated to ensuring excellent healthcare for the people of New Zealand. We embrace a workforce that is diverse and inclusive so that we are better positioned to understand and service our community. We welcome applications from our diverse Māori, Pacific, disabled, and rainbow communities.

How to apply

To apply please click 'apply now'. All applications must be submitted through our online careers portal. If you have any questions about the role, please contact Jade Smith, Recruitment Consultant jade.smith@tewhatuora.govt.nz

We will review applications as received and may proceed with the recruitment process, before the closing date of this advert.

We only accept online applications. Please apply via our website.