

Clinical Consultant Wanted.

Use your clinical expertise to help shape safer, stronger restorative practice, following sexual harm.

Approximately 5 hours per week (10 hours per fortnight) | Flexible remote working with occasional time in our Auckland office.

Are you an experienced senior clinician looking for a flexible opportunity where your expertise can make a meaningful difference? Project Restore NZ is seeking a Clinical Consultant to bring independent clinical insight, mentoring and strategic thinking to our specialist restorative justice service for sexual harm.

In this influential advisory role, you will work alongside our Chief Executive, Clinical Manager and wider team to strengthen clinical quality, support thoughtful decision-making and help evolve the Project Restore model. You will facilitate fortnightly case review meetings, provide consultation and mentoring, and bring a calm, credible perspective to complex clinical and risk matters. The role is focused on expert guidance and collaboration, with no line management, staff performance management or formal clinical supervision responsibilities.

What you will bring

- An NZQA-recognised qualification in counselling, psychology or psychotherapy.
- Current full membership of an appropriate professional body and a current practising certificate.
- At least eight years' clinical experience in the sexual violence response sector, preferably including work with survivors, families and people who have caused sexual harm.
- Experience in clinical leadership, consultation, mentoring or professional supervision, with the ability to translate clinical knowledge into practical and strategic advice.
- A collaborative approach, strong cultural capability and a demonstrated commitment to Te Tiriti o Waitangi, equity and restorative practice.

If you are ready to use your experience in a role with genuine purpose and national impact, we would welcome your application.

Ready to make an impact? Send your CV and a cover letter outlining your relevant experience and interest in the role to office@projectrestore.nz by 30 October. To arrange a confidential kōrero or request the full position description, contact Christina Pipe.

Only applications with cover letters will be considered.

A copy of the job description is posted on our website: <https://www.projectrestore.nz/get-involved/#careers>
