

Registered Psychologist - Child, Adolescent and Family

- Full-time or Part-time
- Apply your psychological skills and make a difference in our community
- NZ Registration as a Psychologist is essential

Our Purpose: Working for Indigo Assessment and Counselling, you're part of something very special. We cater for Auckland and the wider community and their need for educational and cognitive assessments, counselling and ongoing support. Our primary goal is to put people at the heart of everything we do.

Why did you train as a Psychologist? Do you want to help children, adolescents and their family/whanau overcome learning difficulties? Are you reliable, self-motivated and want to contribute to effective service delivery?

We currently have exciting opportunities for NZ Registered Psychologists or Child and Family Psychology with a clear passion for young people and their families.

This position will see you working flexible hours across Monday to Friday, 9.30am to 5.00pm, you choose the days and hours you work.

This is challenging and demanding work within a supportive team. Our team has a range of professional skills to offer and are committed to find the best outcome for our clients.

You will be responsible for:

- Providing comprehensive educational assessments and writing up the reports
- Working collaboratively with young people, family/whanau, community and statutory organisations

Your skills will include:

- Working as a Psychologist or educational Psychologist, you'll need great organisation and excellent time management skills to keep up with this exciting client group
- The ability to effectively communicate and build relationships with customers and family/whanau
- NZ Registration as a Psychologist, a Post Graduate Qualification in Clinical Psychology or Child and Family Psychology would add great value to our team but is not essential

What's important around here is the way we care for and respect others, the responsibility taken for delivering outcomes and going about our work with integrity.

Belonging Here:
