

Senior Tutor

School of Psychology

Division of Arts, Law, Psychology and Social Sciences

About Us

Psychology is the exciting and interesting study of the human mind and its functions especially those affecting behaviour. The School of Psychology allows students to study Psychology with plenty of flexibility to adapt learning to suit individual needs. Psychology can be taken as a major for the Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Social Sciences and Bachelor of Science - unlike any other university in New Zealand.

The Role

The School of Psychology offers a post graduate diploma in Clinical Psychology and they are seeking a part time, fixed term Senior Tutor. If you are passionate about education and believe that the student experience should be second to none then this role is for you. As a Senior Tutor you will be providing quality informed teaching in lectures, tutorials and workshops most days and you will also be co-ordinating and supervising clinical placements of students, a critical component of the qualification.

About You

You will need to be passionate and have extensive knowledge in clinical psychology and be interested in teaching about treating mental illness, abnormal behaviour and psychiatric issues. You will also have:

- a post graduate qualification in Clinical Psychology;
- be registered with the NZ Psychologist Board as a Clinical Psychologist;
- a current practicing certificate in Clinical Psychology.

Prior proven teaching skills at a tertiary level and good organisation, administration and interpersonal skills are also required.

If you enjoy relating to students, staff and stakeholders alike with a positive can-do attitude, and get energy from human interaction then we encourage you to apply for this role. For more information about the School see <https://www.waikato.ac.nz/fass/about/psychology>

Benefits and Salary

Our University provides a unique and satisfying work environment with many benefits to our staff.

Salary will be in the range of $67,438 to $82,012 per year, pro rata.

This position is fixed term for up to 12 months and part time 0.4FTE (15hours per week).

Closing Date: Wednesday, 14 April 2021

Vacancy Number: 410099

For further information and to apply online, please visit:

www.jobs.waikato.ac.nz