In our rapidly evolving workplaces, organisations need flexible, skilled and engaged workers to meet changing business demands. Providing effective training and development opportunities is a vital component in developing and maintaining this talented workforce. But how can we ensure our training is effective and motivating?

This workshop is designed for I/O Practitioners and HR Professionals who want to learn about cutting-edge developments in the field of training and development. It will build your practical skills, develop your confidence in applying new ideas to your own workplaces, and refresh your understanding of excellent training.

Over the half-day workshop, we will cover:
* How to motivate and engage trainees
* The gamification of learning
* Turning e-learning into effective learning.

Dr. Anna Sutton

Dr Anna Sutton is a Senior Lecturer and Convenor of the Organisational Psychology programme at the University of Waikato, where she teaches the postgraduate Training and Development paper. Passionate about research-led practice, she is the author of two textbooks on applying and using psychology at work and conducts research in the areas of well-being and engagement. A Chartered Psychologist and Associate Fellow of the British Psychological Society, she is also a Fellow of the Higher Education Academy in the UK. https://www.waikato.ac.nz/staff-profiles/people/asutton
Venues
Auckland: Parnell Trust, Jubilee Building, Hobson Room, 545 Parnell Road, Parnell
Wellington: Terrace Conference Centre, Room: Lambton 3, 114 The Terrace.
Christchurch: BreakFree on Cashel, 165 Cashel Street

Online registration available here: http://www.psychology.org.nz/pd-events/nzpss-events/#cid=884&wid=301

The workshop is restricted to 20 participants - so please register early if you don’t want to miss out.

Morning tea: 10.30am - 11.00am